

Win the mandate.

Spectacular, fully-branded listing proposals — built for you, from a few photos, an address and your numbers.

At the top of the market, mandates are won on presentation. But building a white-glove proposal for a multi-million-rand home is a slog in Word or PowerPoint — and the in-house tools look generic. So you either burn a day you don't have, or you walk in with something ordinary. We fix that.

How it works

1 • You send A few photos, the address, your price estimate, and a few notes. Minutes of your time.	2 • We build A stunning proposal, branded entirely to you — usually within 24–48 hours.	3 • You win Walk in with white-glove presentation while rivals bring a spreadsheet.

What's inside each proposal ▪ A cinematic cover and gallery ▪ The residence, told as a story ▪ What sets the home apart ▪ Market positioning — your comps, your price ▪ A bespoke marketing plan ▪ Your credentials & the mandate ask	Branded to you — with a quiet edge It carries your name, not ours. And it lets you offer the seller something rivals can't: every serious buyer receives an independent, documented record of the home — removing doubt and protecting the price to transfer. You look more prepared, more premium, more trustworthy.
