PLACE	FROM THE DOOR	WHY GO
Bakoven Beach and tidal pool	~2 min drive	A tiny cove of boulders and white sand below the road — quiet, local, and the closest swim to the door.
Camps Bay Beach	~3 min drive	The big one: white sand, palm-lined promenade, lifeguards in season, and restaurants directly across the road.
Glen Beach	~5 min drive	Tucked between Camps Bay and Clifton, and the local surf break.
Clifton 4th Beach	~10 min drive	Sheltered from the south-easter by the Lion's Head buttress, and a Blue Flag beach. Steep steps down.

7 Good to know

TOPIC	DETAIL
Emergencies	112 from any mobile phone · 10111 police · 10177 ambulance
Driving	South Africa drives on the left. Victoria Road along the coast is slow on summer afternoons; allow extra time to and from the airport.

TOPIC	DETAIL
Sun and wind	The south-easter blows hard in summer – Clifton and Bakoven are far more sheltered than Camps Bay on a windy day.
Swimming	The Atlantic on this coast is cold year-round. The tidal pools at Maiden's Cove and Bakoven are the gentler option.
Cash and cards	Cards are accepted almost everywhere; keep a little cash for car guards and small markets.
Booking ahead	The cableway, Robben Island and the better Camps Bay restaurants all need booking in season.
Tipping	10–15% in restaurants; a few rand for a car guard is normal.

Please check before you travel. Distances and times are approximate and traffic-dependent. Opening hours, ferry and cableway operations and event dates change.
