

Cape Town, Sorted

The essentials on one page — keep me on the counter.

In an emergency 112 any mobile 10111 police 10177 ambulance NSRI sea rescue / mountain: dial 112

Getting around

- Uber & Bolt — cheap, plentiful, easiest way around.
- MyCiti buses: city, Waterfront, Camps Bay & airport.
- Driving is on the left; distances are bigger than they look.
- Airport: agree your Uber/Bolt pick-up spot before you set off.

Money & tipping

- Restaurants ~10–15%; car guards & porters a little.
- Housekeeper: ~R50–R100 per bedroom, per night, left at the end.
- Cards widely accepted; carry some cash for markets.
- ATMs inside malls/banks; decline stranger "help".

Stay safe & well

- Keep valuables out of sight; use ride apps after dark.
- Fierce sun — sunscreen, hat, water, even when breezy.
- Never hike alone; go early, in a group, in good weather.
- Tap water is safe to drink across the city.

Practical bits

- Plugs: Type M / N, 230V — bring an adapter.
- SIM/data: cheap prepaid at the airport or a mall (bring passport).
- Luggage: arriving early / leaving late? Ask about storage.
- Save your host's number & this address on arrival.

Speak a little local

- Howzit — hi / how's it going
- Lekker — great, tasty, fun · Braai — barbecue
- Dankie (Afr.) / Enkosi (Xhosa) — thank you
- Robot — traffic light · Now-now — shortly-ish

Give with care

- Rather than giving on the street, support a reputable local charity or your host's suggested platform — it does more lasting good and keeps everyone safe.
- Ask your concierge for a vetted option.
